- b) The HIRED! Apprentice understands that in order to be eligible for an additional HIRED! Term, the HIRED! Apprentice must receive satisfactory performance reviews for his/her current term. ## 5. Release from Program Term

The HIRED! Apprentice understands that Child, Youth & School (CYS) Services may terminate an Apprentice at any time during a HIRED! Apprenticeship Term if the Apprentice is under the investigation for a misdemeanor, felony, and/or the sale or distribution of a controlled substance. HIRED! Apprentices may also be released if work performance is deemed unsatisfactory by an MWR Placement Site, as documented by the MWR Placement Site and HIRED! Program Coordinator. HIRED! Apprentices may terminate apprenticeships at any time. Authorization to start a new apprenticeship term at a later date will then be determined by the HIRED! Program Coordinator on a case-by-case basis.

6. Grievance Procedure

In the event that informal efforts to resolve disputes are unsuccessful, the HIRED! Apprentice may seek resolution through the following grievance procedures. These procedures are intended to apply to service-related issues, such as assignments, evaluation, or release from cause.

a) Alternative Dispute Resolution

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) must be selected within seven (7) days of dispute. If a HIRED! Apprentice chooses ADR as a first option, a neutral party designated by the Program will attempt to facilitate a mutually-agreeable resolution. The neutral party must not have participated in any previous decisions concerning the dispute. ADR is confidential, non-binding, and informal. No ADR proceedings may be referred to at the grievance-hearing or arbitration states. The neutral party may not participate in future proceedings.

b) Formal Grievance-Hearing

A HIRED! Apprentice may request a grievance-hearing without participation in ADR, or if ADR fails to resolve the dispute. The HIRED! Apprentice should make a written request within seven (7) days of grievance for a hearing to the following four individuals: the MWR Employer, the Youth Program Director, the HIRED! Program Coordinator, and the CYS Services Coordinator. Once a request for a grievance-hearing is made, the Program should provide the HIRED! Apprentice all information used in disciplinary decisions regarding the occurrences in question.
